

First Congregational UCC of Oconomowoc

Relational Covenant

We, the members of First Congregational United Church of Christ of Oconomowoc, commit to treating one another fairly, honestly, and with respect, remembering that we are all beloved children of God. We promise to listen to one another, with focus and patience, withholding judgement. When differences arise that cause conflict, we commit to responding with directness and timeliness, and to creating safe spaces to engage in conversation that allows each person to hear the other. After conversation, we commit to acknowledging the complexity of the differences, and will try to understand that there are many sides to any disagreement. We will claim ownership of our part in the conflict, and will publicly support the outcomes of resolution, seeking to recommit to relationship-building in faithfulness to our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.
